Class #1 -- Presentations

Instructions

Navigate to the slide labelled with your number

Design a slide as follows:

- pick a person (from any domain of life) to whom you would apply the label of “creative strategist”
- produce, on the fly, a mini-presentation on your strategist that includes a justification for your pick

Group 1: Rhema Obiefuna, Andrew Steelman, Gabriela Zappitelli, Gracia Max-Harry, Angel Huang, Jordan Guillory

VOGUE

Anna Wintour

- Brand Visionary (creativity)
- Challenges the status quo (contrast)
- Trend intuition (context)
- Perceptiveness
- Unexpected approach & personality
- Global Cultural Impact through brand and celebrity (combination)
- ICON
- Pushing boundaries, not afraid to break the mold
- Effective leadership style
- Changed the fashion industry through contrast, creativity, context, and combination

Group 2: Siddh Mandirwala, Shipra Dagli, Utsav Doshi, Abhipal Sharma, Adam Kovler, Audrey Green, Isabella Cai

Lakshmi Mittal

“Always think outside the box and embrace opportunities that appear, wherever they might be”

1- He challenged the industry's core assumption on failing plants.
2 - Mittal applied a private equity context to the global steel industry.
3 - Mittal combined Arcelor and Mittal Steel against all opposition.
4 - He turned cyclical industry downturns into an acquisition advantage.

Group 3: Names

Group 4: Ayesha, Ishika, Xueyao, Jim Connolly, Joy Chu, Kavya Pratapa, Darrel Lung, SJ Yu

Travis Kalanick

Disrupted taxi and food delivery industry through democratizing driving and presenting it as a service; expanded into ghost kitchens

- Contrast: Replaced the industry truth of asset ownership with a decentralized platform model (e.g., "cooking-as-a-service" via CloudKitchens).
- Combination: Linked GPS, mobile payments, Turned idle private cars into market supply and freelance labor into a single interface.
- Constraint: Scaled without owning assets by leveraging the "underutilized" cars of others. Shifted from uncertain taxi fares to upfront pricing
- Context: Re-framed ride-hailing from a regulated public utility to a personal digital lifestyle habit accessible via a smartphone.

"What gets me up in the morning - Epic problem solving, scaling organizations, inventing the future having fun doing it everyday!"

Group 5: Names

Group 6: Names

Group 7: Javier Navarro-Machuca, Eugenia Igarza, Mark Shterk

Johan Cruyff: Dutch footballer and Barça manager

Total Football Philosophy
Any player can take over another's role. Everybody defends, everybody attacks.

Contrast
- Challenged the idea that players must stay in fixed positions
- Rejected defensive, rigid systems dominant at the time

Combination
- Combined:
  - Technique + intelligence
  - Attack + defense (everyone participates in both)
- Integrated youth development + first team philosophy

Constraint
- Lack of ball possession
- Divided space
- Non-deterministic play tactics
- Used constraints to build a system dependent on thinking, not star power

Context
- Reframed football from: "win matches" to "control space and the game"
- Changed how success is understood, not just achieved
- Met with Barça's handball team for joint exchange of ideas

Results: In the space of 5 years (1989–1994), led the club to 4 European finals (2 European Cup Winners' Cup finals and 2 European Cup/UEFA Champions League finals). His track record includes 1 European Cup, 4 Liga championships, 1 Cup Winners' Cup, 1 Copa del Rey & 4 Supercopa de España

Group 8: Tatiana Donald, Parnika Gupta, Annabel Miller Green, Sri Akula, Luke Lamble, Parker Dawson

Danny Meyer - Founder of Union Square Hospitality Group

Occupation: Owner of several iconic NYC restaurants, such as Union Square Cafe, Gramercy Tavern, and The Modern.

Strategic Vision & Quotes:

- Employs "51%ers" who practice hospitality to each other first
- "What rule can we break?"
  - Always pushing innovation

Group 9: Lea A, Sweda R, Shivam A, Joshua A, Emma G, Sreya B

- Induces confusion through contradictory nature ie. personality is about laughter/joking but he is evil → causes cognitive dissonance in people
- Acts on his dissonance with carefully planned out operations.
- Unpredictability = strategic creativity
- Has a singular goal of proving that everyone is “One Bad Day” away from becoming him.

The Joker (Heath Ledger Version)

Group 10: Katharina, Mario, Gonzalo, Emily, David, Rachel

Black Widow Spider

Creative strategist applies unique and imaginative thinking to concrete problems

- They're strategist due to their adaptive, calculated approach to survival
- Multiple way to defend themselves
  - Fake death
  - poison
- Strategic in how they catch their prey
  - Irregular webs
- The spots help her hide during the day
  - (it's a warning signal for predators)
- 130+million years old, ability to evolve and adapt over time

Group 11: Josh, Ben, Amaan, Campbell, Katherine, Ricky

- Combined storytelling with technology (synchronized sound, multiplane camera, first animated feature films)

- Different touchpoints for characters - increase stickiness for consumers (theaters, parks, TV, merchandise)

- Created value for cartoon characters - entertainment for children

Walt Disney

Group 12: Seth Weil, Prashubh Atri, Sabrina Seneviratne, Aaron Litinetsky, Kat Kosiw, Ashley Bembry-Kaintuck

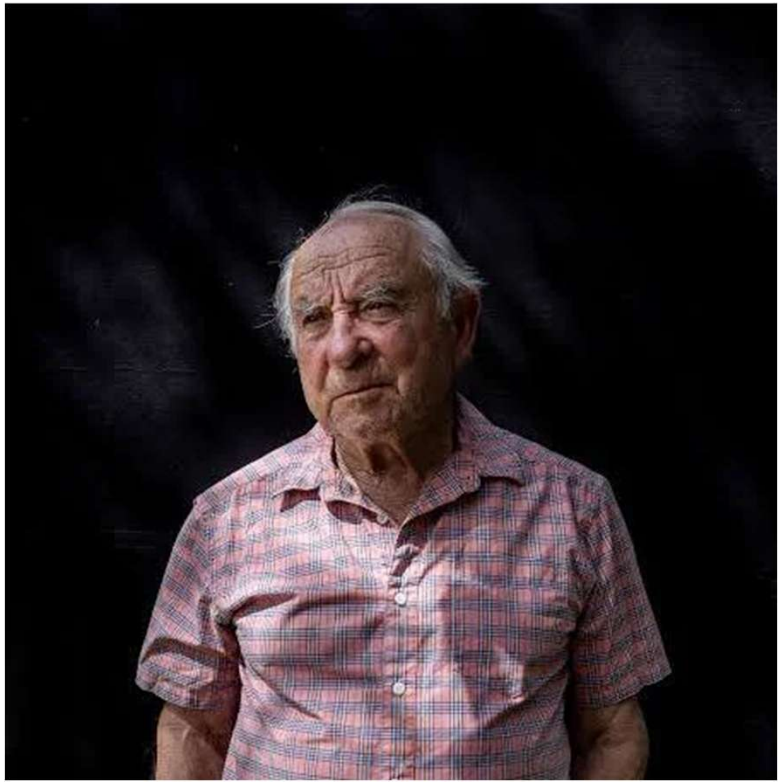
Dr. Dre

- Reinvented himself - DJ, artist, producer, Beats founder (diversification)
- Updated standard headphones to serve the needs of producers
- USC Iovine and Young Academy - Developed after finding a shortage in talent in technology, arts, and business while building Beats by Dre
- Master in his ability to leverage his reputation into a brand

Group 13: Emma Johnson, Mack Glavin, Jamie Varghese, Yutong Wu, Samantha Lutt, Matt Pulford

- Theory of “we want you to buy less”
- Unconventional business structure that uses profits towards protecting nature
- Founded company on a mission that spread through every product Patagonia makes
- “Let My People Go Surfing” – management by absence
- A strong focus on quality over quantity.

Yvon Chouinard



Group 14: Nicole Tsai / Gregory Meves / Sahil Sarnaik / Rohan Gore / Divya Chougule/ Ailin Liu

Jony Ive

"Design is not just what it looks like and feels like.Design is how it works."

Most people think of him as "a designer" but he used design as strategy - not decoration

Contrast → Removed buttons, ports, clutter

- Simplified user experience instead of portraying devices as highly engineered → eliminated buttons, ports
- Not competing over price (like others) but proposing aspirational lifestyle as USP

Combination → Integrated tech + materials + unique design

- Example: iPhone = phone + iPod + internet device

Constraint → Extreme minimalism forced innovation

- Example: MacBook Air → re-engineered components for thinness

Context → Pulled from fashion, architecture, materials

- Example: Apple Watch positioned as luxury wearable, not just tech

Willingness to Pay - Priced at premium lifestyle luxury good.

Willingness to Sell - Attracts top talent + has pricing power

First iPod

First iPhone

First iPad

Group 15:

Jasmitha P N, Olivia Burglund, Jay Daftari, Shreya Sukur, Vivian Ho

- Contrast: Challenging Industry Norms- redefined the rules of beauty
  - Created a more inclusive standard for beauty with 40+ shades of foundation
- Combination : Blends Industries and Experiences together
  - Combines music, fashion and entertainment
  - Creates value by merging categories
- Constraint: Uses ideas considered as limitations by others into competitive advantage
  - Built brands around inclusivity (non traditional beauty standards, diverse body types
- Context: Uses ideas across different domains to create something new

Rihanna